Plaintiff will use the above-referenced witnesses at trial to present evidence under Federal Rule of Evidence 702, 703 or 705. Plaintiff will supplement this designation in compliance with FRCP 26(e)(2).

Non-Retained Expert Witnesses

Plaintiff may use the following witnesses at trial to present evidence under Federal Rule of Evidence 702, 703 or 705. These witnesses are healthcare providers of Beth Cheney MacNeill but Plaintiff has no control over these witnesses and cannot compel them to provide information or to prepare expert reports. Plaintiff would refer Defendants to the medical records and/or deposition testimony generated by such individuals for the subject matter, factual information, mental impressions and opinions held or known by each such person or provider and for any summaries of the basis for their mental impressions and opinions and for any documents reflecting such information.

To the extent they may offer testimony favourable to the Plaintiff, Plaintiff designates and specifically incorporates the following physicians as experts to address the medical and/or causation and/or damages issues in this case including, but not limited to, the standard of medical care, causation, damages, and the fact that Defendants failed to follow the appropriate standards of medical care and were negligent, and that no alleged conduct on Plaintiff's behalf proximately caused any injury or damage to Plaintiff. Plaintiff may elicit opinion testimony from any of these individuals if called by any other party to this case or Plaintiff may call these individuals as experts.

To the extent that such experts offer testimony favourable to the Plaintiff, they are designated as experts to testify regarding their care and treatment of Beth Cheney MacNeill, including but not limited to, Beth Cheney MacNeill's prognosis, diagnosis, extent and/or duration of any injuries, disability, damages and proximate cause of any injuries sustained by Beth Cheney MacNeill made the basis of this suit. These individuals are expected to testify whether the charges for the care and treatment provided by them to Beth Cheney MacNeill were reasonable and necessary. The facts known and opinions of these individuals are set forth in the medical and billing records of Beth Cheney MacNeill which records are incorporated into this designation the same as if fully set forth at length for all purposes. The facts known and opinions of these individuals are also set forth in the written, oral, and/or videotaped depositions of such experts, if any, taken in this case. Such depositions are incorporated into this designation the same as if fully set forth at length for all purposes.

A summary of the facts and opinions to which the witnesses are expected to testify are contained in the voluminous medical records which have been provided to defendants in this case. The content of those records are incorporated by reference as if fully included herein. Additionally, some of the providers and defendants have been deposed and the subject matter of their testimony is contained in those depositions.

The chart herein is designed to show the date, name of healthcare provider and service performed. Additionally, the charges are separated into the amounts charged by the provider and the amount actually paid by the health insurance carrier. The charges are separated and sub-totaled as per provider and institution.

The amounts herein were gleaned and removed from the Alcon insurance and billing records that were acquired by Deposition by Written Questions of September 5, 2014 and are incorporated herein. These records remain available and are in possession of all Defendants. Additionally, the medical care practitioners and other healthcare providers herein will testify as to the cause of Plaintiff's injuries and the relationship between the Defendants' actions and her injuries. They will further testify as to the nature of Plaintiff's pain and suffering in the past and future, mental anguish in the past and future, disfigurement in the past and future and how such limitations will directly cause a loss of wages in the past and wage earning capacity in the future.

All testimony will additionally be based on their training as doctors or other healthcare providers, their education, and in a reasonably medical probability.
